

The first anthology exclusively dedicated to portuguese chess composers has just been released.

Dedicated to the memory of Rui C. Nascimento (1914-2012) – FIDE's Honorary Master of Chess Composition – this anthology covers the entire history of chess in Portugal through a selection of problems published in the national press and in international medias such as The British Chess Magazine, Die Schwalbe, The Problemist, among others.

This edition is limited to 100 copies with handmade covers, making each book a unique object of collection. All orders and inquiries can be sent directly to the publisher using the following link: escoladosilencio.wordpress.com/contacto
